Section F – Rebate calculation (complete only one of Parts I, II, or III, whichever applies)

You are not entitled to claim a GST/HST new housing rebate for some of the GST or federal part of the HST and you do not complete Section F if any of the following apply to you:

- your application type is 1A or 2 and the purchase price of the house is $450,000 or more;
- your application type is 1B or 5 and the fair market value of the house (building and land) when possession was transferred to you was $517,500 or more (in some cases a lower value may apply to restrict the rebate); or
- your application type is 3 and the total amount paid for the share in the co-op is $517,500 or more (in some cases a lower value may apply to restrict the rebate).

If the above situations do not apply and you meet all of the other GST/HST new housing rebate conditions, you may be entitled to claim a GST/HST new housing rebate. Complete Section F. You will need to complete Form RC7190-WS, GST190 Calculation Worksheet, to calculate the amounts you have to enter in Section F.

Note
 If you paid the HST on your purchase of a house located in a province that offers a provincial new housing rebate, you may be entitled to claim a rebate for some of the provincial part of the HST you paid on the purchase. A provincial new housing rebate may be available even if a GST/HST new housing rebate is not. For more information, see the appropriate provincial rebate schedule.

General information

Who should complete this form?

Use this form to calculate and claim your new housing rebate if you bought a new house (including a residential condominium unit or a duplex) or a share of the capital stock of a co-operative housing corporation (co-op). The house must be the primary place of residence for you or a relation. If more than one individual owns the house or share, only one individual can claim the rebate. Partnerships (even if all the partners are individuals) and corporations that buy new houses are not entitled to claim this rebate. An individual cannot claim this rebate if a partnership or a corporation is also an owner of the house.

Do not use this form if you built or substantially renovated your house or hired someone to do so. Instead, use Form GST191, GST/HST New Housing Rebate Application for Owner-Built Houses.

For information on the conditions that apply for each rebate type, see Guide RC4028, GST/HST New Housing Rebate.

If the application is signed by someone other than the claimant, you must attach a properly executed power of attorney to this form.

If your house is located in a province that offers a provincial new housing rebate for some of the provincial part of the HST and you qualify for that rebate, you also need to complete the appropriate provincial rebate schedule to claim the provincial new housing rebate.

Documentation required

If you send the application directly to us, you have to send the following documents with it:

- a copy of the statement of adjustments;
- proof of occupancy (such as a copy of the new house insurance policy with dates and coverage; your vehicle insurance or registration that shows the new address; or an invoice for telephone, hydro, or natural gas hookup); and
- for a mobile home, a copy of the invoice.

Do not send us the agreements for the purchase of your house. Keep them for six years in case we ask to see them.

When should I file my claim?

Generally, you have two years from the date ownership of the house is transferred to you to claim the rebate.
